ABOUT THE EVENT

The contemporary world of management is bedeviled with a number of daunting challenges which require knowledge and skills for top managers of organisations to cope and be able to effectively attain the expected result. Ability to grapple with the demands of the job will definitely enhance the realisation of the organisational goals.

The Retreat is being jointly organised by the West African Management Development Institutes Network (WAMDEVIN) and the Administrative Staff College of Nigeria (ASCON).

The aim of the Retreat is to assist the DG/CEO's with relevant skills that will enable them overcome the multi-faceted challenges involved in managing their respective organisations for the realisation of organisational objectives.

The Retreat will be a rallying point for highly versatile and experienced technocrats to rub minds with their counterparts in the West African sub-region. It will also include presentations and discussions, as well as other informational and social events.

ABOUT THE HOST

West African Management Development Institution Network (WAMDEVIN) - is a sub-regional network of Management Development Institutions and Business Schools whose interests are human resource development, management consultancy, research and publications in Anglo-phone countries in West Africa with its Secretariat in Nigeria. These countries are Nigeria, Ghana, Sierra-Leone, The Gambia, Liberia and Cameroon.

Administrative Staff College of Nigeria (ASCON) was established by the Federal Government of Nigeria to consistently provide excellent services in the area of management training, research, consultancy and allied services for performance improvement and development of senior executives in both public and private sectors of the Nigerian economy.
